To The Visiting Committee

Being one of the committee appointed by you to investigate the Postal Savings Department, I beg leave to report, that on visiting the Savings Department, I found that they ~~have~~ issue cards to children, or adult persons and, also stamps which any person can buy as many as he or she wishes and sell them with the order at ten cents (or) ~~each~~, a stamp the card holds 10 stamps after it is all the person holding the card may take it to the Savings Department of

A child under ten years old age cannot open an account.
Any person wishing to open an account must deposit the first money, after which any one can deposit for him or her.

Respectfully,

Carrie A. Green
